Continued from Page 9) would-be executives are being scheduled in both northern and southern California," Mrs. Bode continued. "The work of the California Federation for the Chinese nurses project is well known. Since it was launched in California shortly after the war started, when the need for trained Chinese women to serve as nurses was first recognized as urgent, the California BPW Clubs have contributed over $18,000 to this valuable training work. Now they will aid in building the Chinese Nurses Home which is the great need there at the present time."

Mrs. Sam Douglass of El Segundo, first vice president of the California Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, points to the leadership training which BPW Clubs give to California women. "To me this is one of the most important contributions of a BPW Club," Mrs. Douglass says. "It carries on our primary objective, which is to elevate the standards of women who work."

Holy Name Dance Set

Reservations for "Autumn Nocturne," a dinner-dance to be presented by the Holy Name Society of Nativity church on Saturday, Oct. 7, will be accepted through today, according to an announcement released this week by Cy Bowen and Joe Lucas, co-chairmen of the parish event.

The first of a series of planned social events for the parishioners of Nativity church and friends, sponsored by the society, will feature a catered dinner and the music of the "Moon-glow" orchestra. Dinner will be served at 7:30 p.m. Tickets will be limited to the first 200 applicants for reservations, and advance sales indicate a capacity crowd. Mrs. Cy Bowen, Joe Lucas and William Fredericks will serve as program hostesses.

"Autumn Nocturne" will be presented in the new parish auditorium located at the corner of Engracia and Arlington in Torrance. Reservations may be secured by contacting Cy Bowen, Joe Lucas or Joseph Platt.

BRIDAL ELEGANCE... A feature of the Beautiful California Bridal show at the Broadway next Thursday afternoon will be this delustered satin sheath. It has floor length skirt, self fringed back panels and bodice accented with Alencon lace motifs.

Bridal Show At Broadway On Thursday

The Beautiful California Bride's Story will unfold in a fashion presentation at The Broadway Del Amo on Oct. 7 at 2 p.m. in the Regency Room.

A showcase of fashion will feature not only the loveliest of fall and winter bridal fashions to set foot down the aisle, but also appropriate dresses for the entourage and for the mother of the bride as well as the mother of the groom... two women who play a very important role in the gay, happy affair.

The Broadway will be turned into a wonderland for brides with helpful suggestions for home furnishings, the newest of ensembles in linens and domestics, silver, china and crystal, stationery for the occasion, books for complete guidance on what is appropriate procedure during this busy time, and of course tips on the practical trousseau. To help tie all of these suggestions into a neat decorative bridal package will be The Broadway's competent bridal consultant, Miss Joan Harrison. She will be available at the show to help all girls who are planning to take that wonderful exciting step into matrimony.

A wonderful surprise is in store for the prospective brides who plan to attend the show. They will be eligible to win a beautiful wedding gown which will be given away at the end of the presentation. No reservations are necessary, however, it is suggested the bride and her entourage arrive early.

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE... "Be in the Right Car, Join the Carr PTA" is the slogan as the Carr PTA launches its annual membership drive Monday. Movable cars in the classrooms will designate the progress being made in the drive. Kicking off the drive are, from left, Mrs. Stephen Boyko, membership chairman, Kathy Owens, daughter of the Jerry Owens, kindergarten student, William Leahy, principal and Mrs. Clifford Enright, poster chairman.

Tribe Holds Graduation

Sequoia Tribe, YMCA Indian Maidens, held a graduation ceremony and dinner

Monday evening, Sept. 18 at the Higgins Brickyard. Mrs. Alpha Renz, YMCA director of Girls activities, presided over the ceremony in which seven girls were graduated from the Indian Maidens to a Tri-Gra-Y club. They were Ronda Brown, Sharon Brown, Jenny Lynn Davis, Sally Duncan, Cindy Holloper, Lynn Stoneberg and Sue Wilcox. Many of these girls, with their mothers, were charter members of the Tribe.

Honored guests of the evening were Mrs. Louise Amos, Inter-Council Chief and daughter, Randi, of the Blackfoot Tribe. Mrs. Amos presented yellow feathers to all members of the Sequoia Tribe for their part in conducting the recent Council induction ceremony.

Visit Bahamas

Mr. and Mrs. William Roberts are on a month's vacation. They flew from International Airport to Florida and last week were in the Bahamas. On their return they plan to visit relatives in Little Rock, Ark., and their daughter, Miss Sally Roberts, a TWA stewardess in Kansas City.

Here For Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bacon, 1303 Portola Ave., have as their houseguests Mrs. Charles Pratt and Rev. and Mrs. T. White of Bernalillo, New Mexico, who came to attend the wedding of Miss Joan Bacon and Steven D. Pratt which took place yesterday.

Designers Named For Style Show

Just announced is the list of European designers whose creations will be viewed by members and friends of Palos Verdes - Rolling Hills Branch, American Association of University Women, at the group's fashion show luncheon, Wednesday, Oct. 4.

Setting for the noon fundraising affair will be the Hacienda Hotel, San Pedro. For this show, Orbach's has culled the trendmakers from the European collections. From Paris comes the cream of Balenciaga, Givenchy, Monsieur X, Nina Ricci, Cardin, Lavin-Castillo, Heim, From Italy, Fabiani, Simonetta, De Barentzen, Galitzine, Capucci.

The new figure conscious shapings depend on skilled craftsmanship—arched seamings, bias cuts, welts, godets, flares, drapings. The new fabric textured wools, re-embroidered wools, matelasses, lames, brocades.

Proceeds from the show will go toward supporting the more than 70 national and international fellowships awarded annually by AAUW.

Mrs. William G. Stuart, chairman, announces that there are still some tickets to be obtained by calling Mrs. James Huesdens or Mrs. Joseph W. Vogt.

Suffrage to Be Studied By League

"You 1848" is the theme of the first fall discussion group sponsored by the Peninsula League of Women Voters. In an atmosphere enlivened by period costumes the membership will participate in a program including a dramatic skit and a documentary picture on women's suffrage here and abroad.

For the convenience of as many people as possible the same program will be presented five different times and in five different localities. The discussion unit will meet Monday, Oct. 2, at the home of Mrs. John Crowther, 28801 Rolling Hills Road, Rolling Hills, at 12:30 p.m. (Those attending should bring a sack lunch.) Two units are scheduled for Tuesday, Oct. 3, at 9:30 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Richard Campbell, 5064 Foxpoint Lane, Rolling Hills Estates, or at 8 in the evening at the home of Mrs. Albert Nadel, 305 Via Linda Vista, Redondo Beach.

On Wednesday, those wishing to attend have an option of a 9:45 a.m. meeting at the home of Mrs. Melzar Jones, 2033 Paseo del Sol, Palos Verdes Estates, or an evening meeting at 8 at the home of Mrs. Richard Huddleston, 27102 Freepoint Road, Palos Verdes Estates.

These meetings are open to anyone interested. Those wishing to join the League are invited to call Mrs. Walter Peterson.

DEDICATION DINNER... The new Temple Menorah building will be dedicated at a dinner dance at 8 p.m. on Saturday Oct. 7. A social hour beginning at 7:30 will precede the dinner. Getting out invitations to the affair are Sisterhood members, from left, Mmes Philip Rosenthal, ways and means chairman, Earl Brooker, dinner dance co-chairman, and Paul Stotland, co-chairman. Further information may be had by calling Mrs. Arthur Heslov or Mrs. Earl Brooker.

DOING THEIR SHARE... Mrs. Robert LeBlond, president of the Torrance Ladies of the Elks, presents a check for $100 to Exalted Ruler Chuck Marguard. The donation will be presented to the Elks major project fund at the 47th Annual California Elks Assn. convention in Santa Monica this weekend.
